Questions for Reflection

1. Christ's armies carry no weapons. Where are you relying on your strength instead of his word?
2. How does Christ's blood-dipped robe shape the way you view his return?
3. How does knowing Satan cannot stop Christ encourage you to remain faithful?
4. Where have you mistaken costly faithfulness for failure?
5. When the books are open, what is your only hope before God?

Gospel Comfort

The King coming to judge evil is the Lamb who shed his blood to save sinners. If you are in Christ, his return is not the arrival of your condemnation. It is the arrival of your rescue.

We are not saved because the record of our lives is clean. We are saved because our names are written in the Lamb's book of life. Jesus lived the righteous life we have not lived, and on the cross he received the judgment our sins deserved.

Christian, your suffering is not abandonment, and your death will not be defeat. The King is coming for you, and he is the Lamb who died for you.
